TODAY OneMK launches its one-of-a-kind awards to celebrate everything that's Made In MK.

Milton Keynes has a wide range of fantastic independent businesses, individuals and community organisations but unfortunately they often don't get the credit they deserve.

Many play a vital part in our local community and make Milton Keynes the place it is today.

To recognise this, OneMK is holding the Made In MK awards evening on Thursday, July 7 at Mercure Parkside Hotel.

Cally Jenkins, OneMK's editor, said: "We are excited to be hosting the first Made In MK awards. Our gala awards ceremony will highlight the fantastic work and achievements of independent businesses, individuals and community organisations.

"Some people think that Milton Keynes is all about roundabouts, high street chains and major company headquarters, but OneMK knows there is so much more to this fun and vibrant city.

"This is thanks to the diverse selection of independents – the jewels in Milton Keynes' crown which we want to put in the spotlight.

"I am very much looking forward to the awards celebrating everything that is unique and special in Milton Keynes."

OneMK is looking for sponsors for this event and there are many different packages available. If you are interested in helping us celebrate, contact Louisa King at louisa.king@onemk.co.uk or call 07816 170330.

Entries for the awards will open soon and you can find out when and hear about any updates using #madeinMK on Twitter.

Karrin rises to the challenge

BLETCHLEY baker Karrin Simpson has made a spectacular cake to celebrate the Queen's 90th birthday, which she will be sharing with shoppers at intu tomorrow. She said: "The Queen's 90th is a special occasion and I wanted to give something back to where I live."

Conservatory Too Hot In The Summer?

Do you suffer from an unbearable heat?

Do you suffer too much glare from the sun?

Do your conservatory plants wilt?

Does your conservatory furniture fade?

Do you use excessive energy cooling the room?

Your Choice Of Internal Finish

Option 1: UPVC Shiplap Cladding

The most popular internal choice for customers who are looking to solve temperature problems with their existing conservatory. The bright white shiplap internal system gives a stunning, maintenance free, light bright and airy finish to your room. With U-Values of below 0.15, the insulation will ensure there are no more Summer days that are too hot and no more Winters that are too cold.

UPVC Finish

Option 2: Plaster Ceiling Finish

The insulation system is fitted with adequate cross ventilation preventing condensation or sweating of the structure. Air vents are also fitted within the system for that extra peace of mind. Following careful installation the roof is finished off with plasterboard and a two coat skim finish. Once dried, you can apply a decorative finish of your choice. This type of finish brings the room to being part of the house again.

Teen is jailed for 'frenzied attack'

A TEENAGER has been jailed for stabbing a man at a house party 12 times.

The 17-year-old boy of no fixed abode, who cannot be named for legal reasons, pleaded guilty at a two-day hearing at Aylesbury Crown Court.

He was sentenced on Friday to nine years' imprisonment for wounding with intent and three years in prison for assaulting a person causing actual bodily harm (to run concurrently).

He was charged with the offences on November 14, 2015.

The sentence relates to an incident at a house party in Ashby, Eaglestone, on Sunday, October 25, 2015.

During the party, sometime between midnight and 1am, the 17-year-old was involved in an altercation with an 18 year-old man, during which the defendant produced a knife and stabbed the victim 12 times in the body, back, arms and legs.

He turned on another man, aged 19, and assaulted him, causing a cut to the side of his head.

Investigating officer Det Con Ian O'Bryne, of Force CID based at Milton Keynes Police Station, said: "The sentence given reflects the severity of the incident, which can only be described as a deliberate and frenzied attack."

"This case serves as a reminder that if you carry or use a weapon, then you can expect prosecution and the possibility of a lengthy custodial sentence."

Kung Foo Eddy still fighting fit

BY SCOTT KIRK

scott.kirk@onemk.co.uk

A PERSONAL trainer who is a British champion bodybuilder and a stuntman on James Bond films is plying his trade in the city at the tender age of 72.

Eddy Diget, pictured, has an enviable CV and as well as being a 'master trainer', which is a more qualified version of a personal trainer, he was also ranked as a Master by the Shaolin Warrior Monks in China, which is an advanced form of kung fu, and has been practicing Chinese martial arts for 55 years.

Among the people who have benefited from training from the former Royal Navy worker are a British heavyweight cage fighter, a South African rugby player and competitive bodybuilders.

Eddy has been at the DW gym next to stadiummk for the past three years and he is passionate about helping his clients, who have a multitude of reasons for wanting to use him.

He says women tend to want to get in shape for a specific event such as a wedding, get rid of 'bingo wings' and lose weight, while men tend to ask him for advice on bulking up.

He said: "This environment brings together everything in my life, which is teaching people various sports.

"I feel like I'm doing something that is helping people and when they get emotional it tears me apart."

Believed to be one of the oldest personal trainers in the country, Eddy is supporting the Department for Work and Pensions Age Positive campaign.

He added: "Companies that are reluctant to hire older people really are missing a trick. More mature people tend to be reliable, confident, organised, great listeners and, most importantly, have the experience of life."

Lover admits he left Ashley to die

jessica.duncan@onemk.co.uk

AN ANGRY lover who left his gay partner dying in a flat after he told him he had been diagnosed with HIV has pleaded guilty to manslaughter.

Ashley Gillard, a 31-year-old hairstylist from Wolverton, was found dead in his third floor flat in Trevithick Court on June 9, 2015.

It is not known how Ashley died, but the prosecution said he may have had a fit from illegal recreational drugs while tied up on June 5.

Thomas White, from Bilbury Court, Wellingborough, pleaded guilty to manslaughter by gross negligence and 10 other charges at Luton Crown Court including arson, stealing clothing and credit cards from Mr Gillard and another man, fraud, theft of a generator, taking a pick-up truck and a BMW without consent and two charges of possession of Class B and Class C drugs.

Graham Smith, prosecuting, said: "The defendant was furious and turned the flat upside down trying to find medications that would confirm what he had been told [by Ashley]. He later told his brother that he knew his friend needed medical attention but he did not help, and put a duvet over him to shut him up."

White returned several days later to set fire to the third-floor flat to cover his tracks and escaped by abseiling down from the balcony.

In the days between Gillard's death and the discovery of the body, White had behaved rationally and replied to messages the dead man had been getting on his mobile phone to make it appear he was alive.

Judge Richard Foster concluded he needed a probation officer's assessment on how dangerous White is after this 'rather bizarre' behaviour. He adjourned the case and White is due to be sentenced on May 16 at the same court.

Man stabbed during nighttime argument

POLICE are investigating after a man was stabbed during a row on Sunday night.

Just before 11pm the victim, a man in his 40s, became involved in a verbal argument with a man and a woman in a residential property in Seaton Grove, Broughton.

During the argument, the victim noticed blood and realised he had been stabbed.

He suffered two stab wounds to his abdomen and was taken to Milton Keynes University Hospital where he remains in a stable condition.

Anyone with information should contact Det Con Kim McHugh by calling 101.

Motorist's blue badge lies

A DRIVER has been left nearly £1,000 out of pocket after using a Blue Badge permit because he 'didn't know it was for disabled people'.

Nasrullah Husseini, 27, of North Seventh Street, Central Milton Keynes, pleaded guilty to misusing the badge at Milton Keynes Magistrates'

Court on Friday. He claimed he'd found the badge and been told by a stranger that he could use it to park for free. The magistrates did not accept his explanation and said he'd acted deceitfully. Husseini was fined £200, ordered to pay full costs of £730 and pay a victim surcharge of £20.

Don't forget our history

AFTER the Romans left, these islands saw the arrival of tribes such as the Angles and Saxons from the continent.

Then kingdoms emerged – first Wessex, Mercia and others and eventually England as a unified state.

The relationship with the Welsh, Scots and Irish ebbed and flowed over the centuries until the present United Kingdom came into being 100 years ago.

The British relationship with Europe has also waxed and waned over the centuries, mainly through war.

The 20th century saw the two bloodiest struggles followed by a determination on all sides to put an end to such conflicts. Churchill was a driving force behind the move to bring European states together so that 'jaw-jaw' replaced 'war-war'.

At the same time the UK was one of the founding members of the United Nations, a forum where nations could talk rather than fight. The UN is not perfect and many say that it should now be reformed but it still plays an important role.

Here, many believe the current structure of the UK is imperfect and more power needs to be given to the regions as well as to devolved assemblies.

But most of us don't want to see the UK break up into its constituent parts; we prefer to sort the problems out through debate and dialogue.

We know the European Union has its faults and needs more reform to its structures and governance but no-one denies it has been a great force for good in preventing war and improving the lives of its citizens.

The UK is one of the great liberal democracies; it has been a role model for many and can continue to be so.

We must argue for a better Europe but if we choose to leave the EU on June 23, I believe that it will be a great step backward.

We must not reduce the debate to one of how much we put in against how much we get out. No-one can forecast, and certainly not our politicians, what our economy will be like in five or 10 years but if we leave the EU, we will all be the poorer for it.

"No man is an island," wrote Donne. "Every man is a piece of the continent." The UK may be physically an island but we are bound to Europe by our history, we must not turn our backs on it now.

Driven to say thank you

I JUST wanted to say a huge thank you to the gentleman in the Milton Keynes Theatre multi-storey car park who, on Monday, very kindly gave me £2 to pay for my parking when I realised the machines didn't take card.

Your kindness meant that I didn't have to walk back to the shopping centre to get money out – sparing my sore feet after a day's work!

It also meant that I spent the rest of the day in a very happy mood and left me feeling hopeful that there's still plenty of kindness about. Thank you!

Your messages on our Facebook page about children crossing the grid roads

COMMENT OF THE WEEK

Comment of the week will win a one course meal for two at Electric Social in the Theatre District (excluding drinks). T&Cs apply

Bijal Nwadi:
Oh I receive this shock daily on my school run. They appear suddenly out of nowhere crossing the road while people are driving at 50/60mph on a downward sloping road. It is ridiculous.

If cameras can be installed then start fining parents of the kids crossing the roads! And with the kind of council taxes we pay, I am sure underpass cameras can be easily afforded!

Kelly Eagles (was Smith): The underpass from Crownhill industrial into Great Holm is awful. No-one likes going under it as a lot of lads/men sit under it and are intimidating. Hence kids/adults crossing main roads.

Paul Kenny: Instead of all the CCTV that you use to monitor our roads to gain a few quid from drivers why not make people feel safe when walking and put CCTV in black spots where people are hidden and can't be seen. A simple camera can discourage idiots from attacking people.

Anthony Martin: The council needs to act sooner rather than later before someone else dies and a driver has to be the one to live with it for the rest of their lives due to the kids stupidity.

Georgina Elizabeth Norris: Of course it's shocking to see but isn't it just as sad that today we would prefer to risk our life crossing a road like this then risk an underpass and maybe have to face a beating, mugging, rape or kidnap. I will never recommend a redway for my son to use.

Lynn Doe: To be fair, most of the time it is sheer laziness. I know a lot of people say the underpasses are dangerous and people hang about, fair enough. But I have lost count of the amount of people I've seen dodging traffic to get across.

Richard Daubney: There's a lot of brainless kids in MK. Laziness gets you nowhere.

Duncan Coley: I've seen adults crossing dual carriageways pushing buggies! Usually less than two minutes walk from a bridge or underpass. It's often just plain laziness and stupidity.

Children risking lives

A MUM was horrified to see children running across a 60mph carriageway. The mum-of-two shared the pictures taken from her car's camera while driving in Tongwell Street, near Groveway.

She said: "I was devastated to see children running between cars. The fence has been broken between Wavendon and Walnut Tree."

Milton Keynes Council has confirmed it will be mending the fence, but it raises concerns that children are still choosing to cross busy roads instead of using redways. Read more about this paper's Walk Safe campaign at onemk.co.uk

Rail link a boost for homeowners

BY CHRIS KNIGHT

chris.knight@onemk.co.uk

HOMEOWNERS in Bletchley look set to profit from the East West Rail project, according to one of the town's estate agents.

The project is aiming to establish a major railway to link East Anglia with Central, Southern and Western England.

New high-level platforms will be constructed at Bletchley allowing East West Rail trains to run to Milton Keynes.

And Satpal Panesar, lead

branch manager with Michael Anthony Estate Agents in Queensway, believes the expansion of the station will lead to an increased demand for property in the town.

He said: "The last couple of years – especially with the recent boom – has seen London buyers investing more in Bletchley and Milton Keynes.

"It is far more affordable to buy in these areas and live with the rail links and Bletchley is value for money in comparison to both.

"People are not coming here yet because of the project, but the impact of the north to south line means it is only logical the new one will have a similar effect."

Residents looking to find out more about the East West Rail project – as well as other local traffic issues such as plans to make Queensway a single through road – are invited to attend a roadshow on Wednesday, April 27.

From 10am-2pm at Stanier Square on Queensway, representatives from East West and Milton Keynes Council's highway team will address any concerns or questions from members of the public.

Thieves target Scout campsite

CCTV: Police want to speak to those pictured after the break-in at the campsite

BY JESSICA DUNCAN

jessica.duncan@onemk.co.uk

A FUNDRAISING page has been set up after Cosgrove Quarries Scout Camp was raided by thieves.

Around £4,000 worth of tools and a mower were stolen from the site, which is used by Scouts, Guides, Brownies and Beavers.

The camp, which was visited by chief scout Bear Grylls last year, was broken into between midday on Monday and noon the next day.

Because it relies on donations and is run by volunteers the 1st Stony Stratford Scout Group, which uses the camp, is trying to raise £1,000 to cover the losses and insurance.

A spokesman for the Stony Stratford Scout Group commented on the page saying: "This is going to affect the whole of the Milton Keynes and surrounding area's Scout groups who use this site regularly."

"I'm sure many of your children are members of the Scouts and possibly yourselves during your childhood years. You may all know they are a non-profit organisation and this is a big hit for them."

Northamptonshire Police is investigating and would like to speak to the men pictured in the CCTV images in case they have any information.

James Palin, county commissioner at Buckinghamshire County Scouts, said: "Naturally, we are all very upset and disappointed to hear that anyone would choose to steal from a Scout campsite, run by charity, for the enjoyment of young people. We would strongly encourage anyone with any information to contact Crimestoppers on 0800 555111. We appreciate everyone's support and vigilance at this time."

So far they have raised £185. To find out how to donate visit onemk.co.uk

House damaged

A PROPERTY had to be made safe by firefighters on Friday after cracks appeared under its roof in Church Street, Wolverton.

Horror crash caused by speed

A CRASH that claimed the lives of a single mum and two teenagers was caused by the driver's speed, a coroner has ruled.

Driver Genevieve Reason, 32, from Woburn Sands, and Lewis Cook and Mary-Anne Wykes, both 16 from Maids Moreton, all died in the crash on the old A421 on May 29 last year.

The trio were killed instantly when Ms Reason's Audi A3 ploughed into a stationary HGV and became 'wedged' before catching fire. Although the pathologist confirmed Genevieve had traces of alcohol and drugs in her system, they could not say if this was a 'significant factor' in the cause of the crash.

Ian Pears, assistant coroner at Bedfordshire and Luton Coroner's Court, said: "The deceased were passengers in a car where the driver was driving too fast for the condition of the road and misjudged a stationary vehicle resulting in a collision."

Calls for police base to return

BY JESSICA DUNCAN

jessica.duncan@onemk.co.uk

CONCERNED residents have set up a petition calling for the reinstatement of their police station.

More than 70 people have signed the Change.org petition so far asking for Thames Valley Police (TVP) Crime Commissioner Anthony Stansfeld to reopen Olney Police Station.

It was closed in March 2015 and replaced by a mobile police station that visits Market Square every Monday and Friday morning.

One supporter of the petition, Paul Griffiths, said: "Thieves rely on the long response time when deciding on committing an offence, it's obvious that if the chance of getting caught in the act is minimal then they have extra motivation to keep committing offences in Olney. We need a police station now."

As OneMK has previously reported, there has been a recent spate of burglaries, including five in one night in February, affecting both residential and commercial properties in the town.

Police are currently investigating a break in at Olney Rugby Club in the early hours of Monday morning.

Someone had been notified by an alarm and went to the club in East Street at around 2.30am when they noticed someone was in the building.

A police spokesman said: "

Officers attended. The offender left the building and ran away after damage was caused.

"TVP is investigating and anyone with any information which could assist enquiries should contact us on 101."

At a public meeting in March police tried to reassure residents they were doing all they could and that Olney is a safe place.

Stolen: Shop owner Thayaparan Shanmugam the day after his store was broken into in the early hours of the morning

Shop burglaries

BY PHILIP MCELENEY

philip.mceleney@onemk.co.uk

A SHOP owner has warned others after burglars broke through the roof and stole £12,000 worth of cigarettes and alcohol from his store.

Police have appealed for information after the burglary at TATA Convenience Store in Great Linford last Wednesday at about 4.20am.

Burglars cut through the roof of the shop and dropped directly into the cigarette cabinet before emptying it and stealing expensive bottles of alcohol.

And now one of the owners of the family-run business has warned other shopkeepers to watch out for burglars using similar methods to break into stores.

Thayaparan Shanmugam said: "They took everything from the cigarette cupboard. I just want to put a warning out for people to be extra careful and to watch out for people trying to break in this way."

"The alarm didn't go off until about 4.50am. More than £12,000 of stock has been stolen – we had a delivery of cigarettes and all of them have gone. It's a family shop and we had to close until it was sorted out."

Another burglary took place on the same night at the Co-Operative Store in High Street, New Bradwell.

Offenders broke into the shop via the roof and stole cigarettes between 11pm last Tuesday and 5.40am the next day.

Police aren't linking the burglaries but anyone with information about either incident is urged to contact them on 101, or call Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Cloudy2Clear Announce Trusted Trader Partnership

Consumer champions
Which? have now joined the thousands of customers who recognise that Cloudy2Clear Windows really are a business that you can TRUST. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has received the coveted 'Which Trusted Trader' status after going through a rigorous accreditation process entirely focussed on customer service.

Group Managing Director Marcus McGee believes that Which? have endorsed Cloudy2Clear's long standing company policy of delivering the highest standards possible at all times. 'Our service is simple. If your double glazing has misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Whilst a number of tradespeople perhaps don't focus on customer care as much as they should do, we make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle.'

Locally Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes &

Leighton Buzzard areas and manager Stephen Moon agrees that this approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated as both my customers and, obviously a body as nationally important as Which? now recognise.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Stephen a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

School site bid is fast-tracked

BY SCOTT KIRK

scott.kirk@onemk.co.uk

A SITE for much-needed primary school places has been rushed through at a council meeting.

Oxley Park Academy needs more space to teach the students it has, with OneMK reporting in the past of access and parking restrictions at the school.

But the academy looks set to build a second site in Shenley

Wood in Merlewood Drive.

A Milton Keynes Council delegated decisions meeting last Tuesday night transferred the site from Milton Keynes Development Partnership to the authority without the need to market it, which would involve creating a time-consuming pre-application or development brief.

It means that the school can be built in time for the 2017-18 academic year.

Jonathan Entwistle, head of spatial planning, implementation, planning and transport, wrote in council papers: "A development brief would delay provision of much-needed new school places."

Meanwhile, parents were told which primary schools their children would be going to on Monday.

You could make a difference to a child or young person's life

Milton Keynes Council is keen to recruit people who can offer a safe and loving home for a child/young person in care. We are especially seeking carers for teenagers. As a Milton Keynes Council foster carer you will be provided with a generous allowance plus support and training.

Our foster carers come from all walks of life and across a diverse community. They offer children and young people a nurturing, caring home environment where they can begin to thrive and reach their full potential.

It's a challenging role; one which will always ask for a great deal of input and support from you. However in providing a home to a child/young person who is unable to live with their family for a period of time you will be creating a wonderful experience for everyone involved.

'Our estate is going to pot' say residents

BY SCOTT KIRK

scott.kirk@onemk.co.uk

AS MANY as 121 potholes have been discovered on just one estate.

The residents' association for Tinkers Bridge is now calling for the problem to be sorted out after branding some areas of the estate 'dangerous'.

The potholes on roads and paths were spotted by the group's chairman John Orr and member David Lee.

They also found tree roots protruding through footpaths and Mr Orr said conditions need to be improved because people with disabilities, walking sticks and mobility scooters were struggling to get around.

He said: "I would say there are parts of Tinkers Bridge that are definitely dangerous, particularly in the dark. If you're in a mobility scooter or walking in the dark then it is virtually impassable."

Mr Lee called for the process of reporting problems to Milton Keynes Council to be made simpler, claiming potholes had to be recorded one at a time.

He added: "The estate has been run down and there hasn't been the maintenance needed.

"We want to see the problem completely solved."

A council spokesman said: "The council's highways inspectors regularly visit areas across Milton Keynes, including residential estates, to assess if any repairs need to be done. Repair work is then prioritised based on these assessments.

"Any potholes or trip hazards can be reported directly to the highways team through the council's website or by calling 01908 252353."

Misspelling of new hotel sign

ONE eagle-eyed resident sent us this photo of a misspelt sign being put up last Tuesday.

The sign was being installed because the Ramada Encore is being rebranded as a Travelodge, which owns the hotel in The Hub in Central Milton Keynes.

A spokesman for The Hub said: "It would appear that the contractors made an error on one of the signs, which has been rectified immediately."

Retail hopes for the Food Centre

BY JESSICA DUNCAN

jessica.duncan@onemk.co.uk

SAINSBURY'S claims it is marketing its area of the Food Centre in CMK but has not yet found a tenant.

The news emerged after the building in Central Milton Keynes – which is run by the centre:mk and has had several empty units since 2013 – was not given listed status by Heritage England.

This means significant development can go ahead in the next five years and the centre:mk has confirmed it hopes to use the centre for retail and leisure facilities.

As OneMK has previously reported, people want more to be done with the building in Avebury Boulevard and there have been calls for Primark to move in.

of the centre:mk, said: "Our aim is to find a solution that contributes to the city centre and combines both leisure and retail but must be market led."

A spokesman for Sainsbury's said: "We are actively marketing the site as we do not want it to remain empty. But to date we have yet to find a tenant. We have no plans to open there."

Plan for revamp vote

BY JESSICA DUNCAN

jessica.duncan@onemk.co.uk

RESIDENTS could get the final say on the regeneration plans for seven estates.

On Monday MK Labour said that if it wins the local election in May it will offer residents the chance to vote in a referendum before any work starts.

The move has also been backed by the MK Conservatives and Liberal Democrats.

As previously reported by OneMK, residents were outraged when plans to revamp North Bradville, Fullers Slade, Coffee Hall, Beanhill, Netherfield, Tinkers Bridge and the Lakes Estate were announced in January.

Many were worried that some homes would be knocked down and replaced.

Labour leader Cllr Peter Marland said: "MK Labour has always said that regeneration needs to be community led and that people of the estates we are talking about need to be involved in plans.

"There are many rumours and scare stories about what could happen, especially on issues such as possible demolition, density and green spaces. I can reassure people that we are currently in the very early stages and there are no plans for any estates yet.

"They will be developed with local residents as we move forward with regeneration."

Conservative leader Edith Bald echoed his views. She said: "It is important to take the community with us."

And Lib Dem's Douglas McCall added: "Regeneration should be from the grass roots upwards and we 100 per cent back this."

Anger over plan to build extra homes

BY PHILIP MCELENEY

philip.mcelaney@onemk.co.uk

OBJECTIONS have been raised over plans for a controversial 200-home housing development.

As reported by OneMK, plans have been submitted to Milton Keynes Council for the estate in Woburn Sands, which would feature a mix of one-bedroom to five-bedroom homes and a GP surgery.

But a Woburn Sands town

councillor has this week spoken out against the proposal, saying they don't want it.

Councillor Jackie Jeffries said: "We're not happy about it. It will put a burden on facilities in the town that we really can't cope with."

"The schools are full, doctors' surgeries are full. It says there will be a doctors' surgery there but that depends on NHS funding so it's very unlikely. It's pie in the sky."

The plans propose 33 per cent of the houses to be affordable, but Cllr Jeffries feels it would go against the promises made to towns and villages around MK.

"It's just too much, we can't cope with all this."

"It's meant to be a green area," she said.

"MK's promise has always been that the older towns and old villages will have their character preserved. Ours is being undermined."

True craftsmanship is timeless

If you're looking for the highest quality fitted furniture for bedrooms, kitchens and home offices, Renaissance Interiors should be the first people you talk to.

The secret to success for Renaissance Interiors lies in our in-depth understanding both of fitted furniture design, and of what really matters to our clients. That's why director Julie Hawker Cole visits all our clients in their own homes to discuss their furniture needs and design tastes before taking accurate measurements.

At Renaissance Interiors, we take the time to understand how important it is to clients that a bedroom is an oasis of calm in a life where they may be juggling work and children, somewhere they can be themselves, have plenty of storage space for clothes and shoes and sleep well at night.

We also work with clients to design new fitted kitchens around the family's lifestyle, whether they need to supervise children's play or homework while they cook, or whether they want a large, airy space to relax and eat with friends.

Renaissance Interiors will create professional, affordable and individual detailed designs & plans to your exact specifications and to fit the space you have available in your home.

Visit our website at www.renaissanceinteriors.co.uk to view our gallery and New Styles for 2015.

Serving up help for the homeless

BY JESSICA DUNCAN

jessica.duncan@onemk.co.uk

THE desire to help the homeless has continued following the deaths of two people.

The Re-Use Community Centre has now launched a food and clothes donation point at its base in Kiln Farm after its volunteers went out at night to meet some rough sleepers.

Co-founder John Mann said: "I was quite shocked actually at the high volumes of people sleeping on the streets.

"Some people were out of prison, been evicted or just couldn't get housing.

"I was of the influence they could be drunk or on drugs but we only met one person in that situation.

"I felt terrible going home to my bed while they were still out there.

"As a community project we want to continue to take food and clothes each month."

The centre is looking for items including bottled water, biscuits, cereal bars, tinned food with ring pulls, crisps and any other

Speaking to the homeless: John Mann and Re-use helpers gave out clothes and food in MK. The centre is calling for donations non-perishable foods. As OneMK has previously reported, the deaths of Tony Porter and Patrick Allen, who were both known to the homeless community, led to residents calling for the city's homeless crisis to be addressed.

Mr Mann added: "Long term, I am not sure what the best solution is, but I do think organisations and charities in the city need to communicate and work better together.

Riding to raise cash after tragic accident

BY SCOTT KIRK

scott.kirk@onemk.co.uk

A DAD is doing a bike ride from Crystal Palace, London, to Paris to help a charity that supported his family after his baby son tragically died.

Andy Warner-Simpson, from Bletchley, is doing the bike ride to raise money for the Ronald McDonald House (RMH) in Oxford, which helps provide a home away from home for families with children in hospital suffering from a serious injury or illness.

After 22-month-old Edward was taken to hospital last year following an accident, the charity helped Andy and his family be close to their son during his final days.

The bike ride begins tomorrow and the aim is to finish by Sunday and raise £5,000.

"Due to the extent of his injury we knew that his chances of pulling through were very low and all we knew was that we wanted to be by his side no matter what happened," said Andy.

"Knowing that you could be staying in hospital with a young family and no clue how you are going to cope really adds a great deal of extra stress onto an already horrific situation and that is when the great work of RMH Oxford comes in."

"While nothing anyone did could stop the pain we felt, having the facilities of RMH helped us during this horrific period."

To donate to the cause go to www.justgiving.com/Andy-Warner-Simpson1 or text EDDI53 plus £10 to 70070.

Drop in hygiene scores for food

BY PHILIP MCELENEY

philip.mceleney@onemk.co.uk

THE number of eateries scoring low food hygiene ratings has nearly doubled since the start of the year.

There are now 25 places in Milton Keynes rated as zero or one star by the Food Standards Agency, up from 13 in January.

The rating system gives places serving food a score from zero to five stars. Zero stars means urgent improvement is necessary, while one star means major improvement is necessary.

But Milton Keynes Council feels the three zero star-rated and the 22 one star-rated outlets do not represent a widespread drop in the city's food standards.

A council spokesman said: "There has been no noticeable drop in standards at food premises generally across MK. More inspections have been carried out recently – inspections are undertaken when they become due on our computer system."

But the council did concede hygiene may have fallen at some of the recently-inspected places.

"Inspections are 'spot' checks so it would appear some premises not visited in a while may have slipped in their standards," the spokesman added.

At this stage we do not know what the outcome will be even though we feel our client has a very strong case. Just think how much hassle, money and time could have been saved if his late father had simply made the death benefit nomination.

Even if you have made a death benefit nomination have you fully considered the consequences of it by taking advice first? You see many of our clients are married. They routinely leave 100% of their pensions to their surviving spouse. The problem with this approach is that it puts money into the widow(er)'s estate and increases their Inheritance Tax liability. In the vast majority of cases it is far better to put the pension into trust instead. That way the survivor can still access the funds but the pension death benefits do not form part of their estate.

If you are approaching retirement and/or considering early retirement and need advice why not get in touch?

We work with business executives aged 45+ who are ready to take their life and career by the scruff of the neck.

A young client of mine recently benefited from a pension lump sum when his father died. The problem was that not only did he die intestate (without having made a will) but he also failed to make a death benefit nomination. He was unmarried but living with his partner at the time of death. She has now appointed a solicitor and is threatening to take my client to court

SALMON WITH LEEK AND CAPER MASH

Serves two 10 SmartPoints®
values per serving.

Ingredients

- 2 x 125g salmon fillets
- 400g potatoes
- 1 leek, sliced
- zest and juice of 1 lemon
- 2 tbsp skimmed milk
- 1 tbsp capers
- Parsley, chopped
- Black pepper

Method

1 Peel, chop and boil the potatoes until tender. Add the leek into the pan about 5mins before the end of the cooking time.

- 2 Meanwhile, spray calorie-controlled cooking spray in a frying pan, cook the salmon fillets over a high heat for 2 minutes on each side.
- 3 Add the lemon and cook for another 2 minutes, then remove from heat.
- 4 Drain the potatoes and leek, then mash. Stir in the skimmed milk along with the capers and chopped parsley. Season with black pepper.
- 5 Serve the mash and salmon together.

YOUNGSTERS have been urged to vote in the upcoming local election, with OneMK offering them the chance to meet party representatives over free pizza to help them have their say.

Milton Keynes Council's chief executive Carole Mills has praised the ability of younger voters to offer fresh opinions on local government and said voting is the best way of getting these views across. OneMK has teamed up with the Milton Keynes YMCA to create an event where voters can grab a slice of free pizza and ask politicians questions at Electric Social in the Theatre District on Wednesday, April 27 from 6-8pm.

Leader of the council and MK Labour, Cllr Pete Marland, will be there as will Conservative leader Cllr Edith Bald, Liberal Democrat member Cllr Ric Brackenbury and representatives from the Green Party and UKIP.

Ms Mills emphasised the importance of young voters and reminisced about her own experiences.

She said: "It's vital that young people choose to vote in the election.

"Their views are just as important as everyone else's and it's essential their voice is heard.

"The future is theirs and I'd encourage all young people (and everyone else for that matter) to have their say on who they want to represent them at every level of government.

"Often young people have a fresh perspective and new ideas on what is needed and how things should be done and voting is the perfect opportunity to get this across.

"I still remember my excitement when I voted the first time at age 18. It's your chance to have your say and make a difference – so please come along to vote."

To attend the OneMK event confirm your attendance by emailing editor@onemk.co.uk or simply heading over on the night.

Leaders try to win your vote at polls

VOTERS in the city will soon be going to the ballot boxes to vote in the local election on May 5.

A total of 20 seats will be up for grabs on a day that could drastically alter the balance of power in the council.

As it stands, Labour holds a slim majority, but it currently has just one more seat than the Conservatives.

With so much at stake, each party has been keen to stress their views on key issues such as education, homelessness, parking and road maintenance.

One third of the council is elected each year for three consecutive years and this is followed by a year without an election.

Nineteen seats will be decided in the upcoming election, with wards in Bletchley, Newport Pagnell, Stony Stratford and Wolverton going to the polls.

In addition, Councillor Carole Baume's decision to step down means a by-election will also be held on the same day in Bletchley East.

OneMK has been in touch with key members of each political party and given them the opportunity to tell readers why they should vote for them.

For full coverage on the election and a list of the candidates, visit www.onemk.co.uk

PETE MARLAND

LABOUR PARTY

"MK LABOUR wants to build a fairer MK where people can achieve their ambitions, which is a place of opportunity, that is affordable and healthy.

"Milton Keynes Council is battling severe cuts imposed by the Tory Government, with more than £100million being cut from our budget.

"Despite that, since Labour took control of MK Council in 2014, we've started the biggest council house building programme in a generation, introduced the REAL Living Wage, expanded school places, kept every library open and not closed any children's centres. MK Labour is making a difference. "We know that MK has many challenges around growth, homelessness, affordability, school places and our health services. MK Labour wants to tackle these in a positive way and we have a joined up vision for the future.

"Only by voting Labour can you make sure that MK is a place where everyone has the opportunity to achieve their ambitions. Voting Labour will make a positive difference to the future of our city."

EDITH BALD

CONSERVATIVES

"AS MILTON Keynes approaches its 50th birthday we are at a crossroads.

"Do we continue with a council suffering from poor political leadership?

"Or do we look to strong leadership with the experience and skills to build a better MK?

"Currently vital services are under threat while charges are rising and Labour is running the council on an overdraft.

"Conservatives will put MK back on track and deliver a Better MK.

"We have an ambitious manifesto that will forge us a brighter future.

"We will focus on building a strong local economy and jobs market.

"We will build more affordable homes, retain pink sacks, build a multi-storey car park, reduce premium parking charges and protect and enhance bus services.

"We will boost funds for the voluntary sector through a community lottery.

"We will champion MK's case for better healthcare; the answer lies in stronger partnership working with the NHS."

DOUGLAS MCCALL

LIB DEMS

"AT THE heart of what MK Liberal Democrats will do is to protect the most vulnerable from the Conservative Government cuts.

"Therefore, we will make tackling homelessness a priority and do more to help the increasing number of single homeless people. We also commit to building homes and hostels on council-owned land and work with the voluntary sector working with the homeless.

"We will support the strict enforcement of the current policy of 30 per cent affordable housing, both to buy and for rental, with a proposal to increase that percentage to 35 per cent.

"Liberal Democrats remain committed to non-selective education. We believe in a good school for EVERYONE.

"Liberal Democrats would continue to support independent living for our senior citizens. We would explore offering the warden service to residents in need of it living in the community.

"We will protect public transport as it is the means by which many get to and from work."

VINCE PEDDLE

UKIP

"MILTON Keynes residents can be assured that their UKIP candidate will work hard for them if elected in the May elections.

"UKIP will consult the public regarding large projects like regeneration. We will reduce the pressure on housing by ending open door immigration, oppose the bedroom tax and provide incentives for the reuse of empty homes. UKIP will ensure locals and veterans are given priority for social housing. We want to improve access to quality education, encourage vocational apprenticeships and give parents the right to choose where children go to school.

"UKIP will improve road maintenance as a priority, repairing potholes and restoring faded traffic markings. We will protect the NHS from health tourism, put local communities at the heart of health care and oppose cuts to front-line doctors, dentists and nurses.

"UKIP will reduce tax and business costs to further stimulate the MK economy.

"We will introduce greater democracy by removing the undemocratic MK Council cabinet system."

JENNIFER MARKLEW

GREEN PARTY

"WE BELIEVE it's time for a Green voice on Milton Keynes council.

"We have four main themes that we are campaigning around:

- Better homes
- Community innovation
- Local business
- Better transport

"The number of homeless people in Milton Keynes since 2010 has doubled and it is becoming a noticeable issue within our city.

"This is affecting local communities and is causing tensions between those in desperate need and residents.

"We should be doing more to support the homeless and the communities in which they are currently resident.

"The cost of housing in our city is becoming astronomical, particularly for those in the private rental sector.

"We will fight for truly affordable housing, both for sale and rent.

"The cost and reliability of public transport is similarly a problem that we will address, to encourage residents out of their cars and ease the demand for parking particularly around the city centre."

Ex-councillor avoids jail for porn crimes

BY PHILIP MCELENEY

philip.mceleney@onemk.co.uk

A FORMER Conservative councillor has escaped being sent to jail after he pleaded guilty to five porn charges relating to images of animals and children.

Ex-Milton Keynes councillor, John Hawthorn, was sentenced at Aylesbury Crown Court last Wednesday.

He had previously pleaded guilty at Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court on February 23 to two charges of making an indecent photograph/pseudo-photograph of a child, two counts of possession of extreme pornographic images portraying an act of intercourse/oral sex with a dead/alive animal and one count of possession of a prohibited image of a child.

Hawthorn was sentenced to four months' imprisonment suspended for two years and placed on the sex offenders' register for seven years. He also has to attend the cyber safe programme and pay £340 in costs.

The charges came as a result of a search warrant on Hawthorn's home in October 2013 where equipment including a black tower computer was searched.

Police found a total of 50 images on the computer and 49 images on another piece of equipment – this included two images of bestiality with young children.

Hawthorn, of Aelfric Court, Bedford, was also found to possess extreme pornographic images involving a dog.

The 70-year-old served as a Conservative councillor representing the Stony Stratford ward from 2010 until he resigned on February 25, 2014.

He also served as chairman of Abbey Hill Parish Council.

Clean up: Serco staff, who are part of Milton Keynes Council, litter picking at Emberton Park and collecting some of the black sacks left by visitors the previous day. The aftermath of the religious festival has divided opinions with some claiming all events end up with some extra rubbish, while others want more respect for park

Load of rubbish

BY JESSICA DUNCAN

jessica.duncan@onemk.co.uk

RESIDENTS were shocked when a park was left 'littered with rubbish' after a religious festival.

Every year the Sikh community in and around Milton Keynes celebrate Vaisakhi, a harvest and New Year festival, at Emberton Country Park near Olney, which is run and maintained by Milton Keynes Council.

Local residents have complained that not only was rubbish left at the park, which was 'really upsetting', but cars were also seen driving around the park at speed instead of the 10mph limit.

As OneMK has previously reported, complaints about the rubbish have been made every year.

However, despite some upset, the annual event continues to bring money to the park.

A spokesman for the council said: "For a large gathering of people there were relatively few litter problems. Each year we issue extra black sacks which are used."

"It was a very successful event with 400 to 500 cars bringing around £2,000 on the gate.

The clean up only cost around £100."

On OneMK's Facebook page Helen Wynnefrith Wilson commented: "Sounds like a little bit of cultural intolerance. You see the same amount of rubbish after any busy event in the park."

David Joyce added: "Looks to me as if they've used the bins and sacks provided, with just a bit left to collect. Note the pickers are using grey sacks, so the black ones would have been filled and left for collection."

Students learn the horrors of genocide

BY SCOTT KIRK

scott.kirk@onemk.co.uk

SURVIVORS of war time atrocities gave first hand testimonies of their experiences to students at a Genocide Awareness Day yesterday.

Holocaust survivor Ruth Barnett and Nedzad Advic, a survivor of the 1995 Srebrenica massacre during the Balkan conflict, told their stories to sixth form students at Sir Herbert Leon Academy in Bletchley.

Student Emily Capp, 18, said it was important to learn from these survivors so that those atrocities didn't happen again.

"We moan about people coming to the country but people need to," she said.

Jodi Chase, 17, added: "It really puts into perspective the migrant crisis that is happening at the moment and it's important to stand up for what you believe in, not stand by."

Milton Keynes mayor Keith McLean stayed all day to listen to the genocide survivors and he felt it was extremely important for children in the city to learn about what people have been through.

"It is absolutely vital that students learn about this and understand what happened even though it is very hard-hitting listening to it."

"This school seems to do an awful lot of this type of education, which isn't quite academic but is equally important for the students to know going into their adult life."

The school has been organising the talks since 1999 and headteacher Jo Trevenna believes they are of great importance.

"Our students learn first hand from people who have experienced these horrors, which is more beneficial rather than from a book or documentary," she said.

Ms Barnett, from London, added: "It is absolutely vital for children to learn from these atrocities and I want my grandchildren to have not just life, but quality of life."

FLASHBACKMK

'I learned all about MK through the OU'

ONEMK has been asking people to share their memories of Milton Keynes in the build-up to the city's 50th birthday. Here, we speak to Downs Barn pensioner Tom Hunter. Don't forget to send in your memories to editor@onemk.co.uk

I LEARNED all about Milton Keynes through the Open University (OU).

In 1970, having heard about the Labour Government setting up the OU, I decided it looked the ideal opportunity to earn a degree.

So I applied for a place and in due course heard I had been accepted as a student. I became one of the university's first intake of students in 1971. The same year the OU moved from temporary premises in London to new purpose-built (well almost) premises in Walton Hall in a town with a funny name.

In early 1978 a letter from the OU informed me I now had an honours degree in the arts.

I got a job with the OU, which meant of course moving from Edinburgh to MK, which my family and I did over the August Bank Holiday in 1978.

We finally chose a terraced house in Conniburrow and drove into Bletchley to buy some odds and ends (in case there were no shops open over the bank holiday).

In 1979 at the opening of the shopping building in the city centre, we met the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh (travelling in a kind of golf cart) and were herded into an empty shop space.

Flashback: Tom Hunter shares his memories

Open door to buyers

MK LIFE welcomes Talie Mole – our new columnist, who will teach you the tips of the trade when it comes to home design.

A former contestant on TV's The Great Interior Design Challenge, the Bletchley-based designer also runs her own business, Urban Mole UK.

In her first column she gives you her top tips on how to sell your house quickly and not give potential buyers an excuse to put in a 'cheeky' offer.

1. I cannot stress the importance in cleaning your property. First impressions count. Estate agents will take the condition of your home into consideration and it will affect your valuation price. A bit of time and elbow grease can make the difference of £5,000 to £10,000 in your pocket!

2. Ask yourself, if you saw a crack in the wall, would you worry if it's structural or superficial? A light not working, is it just a blown bulb or a problem with the electrics? A mouldy bathtub, is there a water leak or does the grout just need cleaning? These are all problems that your potential buyers will pick up on. Make a list of defects and work through them.

3. Create light and space. Brighten your rooms by losing heavy, light inhibiting curtains and suppressive colours. Decluttering will immediately achieve space, so be mindful of the amount of accessories you have on show.

IT STARTED with a loud gunshot and finished with a standing ovation – The Bodyguard at Milton Keynes Theatre was a slick spectacle that had the audience captivated.

A cross between a pop concert, musical and a night at the movies, this adaptation of the famous Whitney Houston and Kevin Costner film ticks all the right boxes.

There is no doubt the star quality of Alexandra Burke as Rachel Marron, who is being targeted by a stalker and former Secret Service agent turned bodyguard, Frank Farmer, is hired to protect her.

She dances up a storm to the upbeat tracks, including dazzling opener Queen of the Night, ensuring we know she's befitting of the role, which she has made her own.

Stuart Reid is well-cast as the tight-lipped, loner bodyguard. His singing performance in the karaoke-bar scene is wonderfully cringeworthy and one of the best scenes.

Rachel John is at times a show-stealer as Rachel's sister, Nicki. She gives an emotional performance as the hard-done-by younger sister who is always outshone by her famous sibling. She has a beautiful soulful voice and the Run to You duet between her and Burke is another standout scene.

The Bodyguard features songs from the film as well classics from Whitney's back catalogue, including One Moment in Time, Saving All My Love, I Have Nothing and I Wanna Dance With Somebody, which had everyone on their feet. And of course there's the film's chart topping megahit I Will Always Love You.

This production with its moving slick, shape-shifting set with enormous projections, talented cast and Whitney Houston's greatest hits is, in my opinion, just as good as the 1992 Oscar-nominated film and definitely worth going to see.

HEART Breakfast is, like MK LIFE, getting excited about Milton Keynes International Festival (IF) this summer, which needs your help.

Have you ever seen a giant domino topple? Apparently there used to be a world Domino Day that was shown on Dutch TV, where people set up millions of dominoes in order to try and break the world record!

So imagine that idea, but with the dominoes toppling for approximately 2km cascading through the centre of Milton Keynes with some tricks along the way. Well, on Saturday, July 16 this is going to happen and the organisers need your help.

Everyone taking part in Dominos as part of IF will be required to assemble a section of domino line. They will have guard it, to make sure it doesn't topple at the wrong time, and help tidy up once they've toppled! If you want to take part then find out how you can at onemk.co.uk

Also as we mentioned last week, tomorrow The Queen will celebrate her 90th birthday, and as part of the national beacon lighting, The Beacon in Campbell Park will be lit.

The Parks Trust and Milton

Keynes Museum are organising events to commemorate the occasion. Keep your eye on onemk.co.uk and heart.co.uk for more birthday events around the city.

Tune in to Heart Breakfast with Stuart Miles and Katy Hill on Heart 103.3 FM, DAB, at heart.co.uk or via the Heart mobile app.

The Stables

Out and about

live music

PYRATES & Forest of Fools will be hoping to wow the crowds at The Craufurd Arms this Saturday.

An eclectic mix of electric folk rock and marauding seafarers, Pyrates will take to the stage dressed to impress in full pirate attire, while Forest of Fools are back in the city after launching EP Jump-up Folk at MK11 in February.

Tickets cost £5 in advance and entry is open to all over the age of 14.

For more information, visit www.thecraufurdarms.com or call 01908 313864.

blues rock

BLUES rock artists the Keith Thompson Band will be coming to The Stables on Thursday, April 28.

The band have been performing on the continent for more than 20 years and in 2015 Keith released his eighth album Catch the Fire, which featured performances from Buddy Whittington and Laurence Jones.

Tickets are still available and cost £10 in advance, or £12 on the door, for the 8.45pm show. For more information, visit www.stables.org or call 01908 280800.

ALL aboard the musical global journey with Bradwell Silver Band on Saturday.

The annual spring concert and awards presentation will take place when the whistle blows at 7.30pm.

Musical director Brian Keech will lead the players and audience on a magical journey, using different forms of transport, visiting many countries and types of musical genre including pop, classical and musical theatre.

The evening's soloists include Karen Wilson on flugel horn, Adam Chappell on soprano cornet, Fraser Cousins on euphonium and an entertaining performance of The Bare Necessities from talented musician Luke Colvin on tuba.

Once again the Development Band will delight the audience with a selection of new music to demonstrate their progress.

The band now has 28 members of all ages who are together experiencing the delights of learning and playing a brass instrument.

All instruments and tuition are provided by the band free of charge.

The spring concert gives the band members the opportunity to celebrate and recognise the commitment and dedication of its players and supporters.

Together with the traditional four trophies this year the members will present a new annual award to a player in the Development Band who has shown outstanding work ethic during the past year.

The event kicks off a busy 2016 engagement list and full details can be found by visiting www.bradwellband.co.uk

MKlife HOTPICKS

'allo 'allo

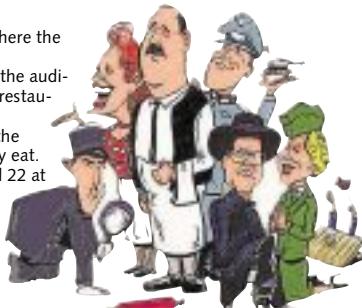

LISTEN very carefully, I shall say this only once.

'Allo 'Allo dining is an interactive comedy show where the audience dines in Rene and Edith's 'umble cafe.

It begins in the bar over pre-dinner drinks, where the audience meet the characters then go through into the restaurant where they are served a three-course meal.

The show is half-scripted and half-improvised by the actors, taking place around the audience whilst they eat.

It takes place at Holiday Inn, CMK on Friday, April 22 at 7pm. Tickets cost £30 from 01908 698555, or by emailing meetings@hilmiltonkeynes.co.uk

organ concert

ORGANIST Paul Daggett will pull out all the stops for the inaugural choral concert for the restored Father Willis organ at Saint Mary and St Giles in Stony Stratford on Saturday.

He will be joined by The Open University choir in a programme of music for choir, brass, organ and percussion, including John Rutter's Gloria, motets by Anton Bruckner and music by various composers connected with St George's Church, Edinburgh, for which the organ was originally built.

Tickets cost £12 (£2 for under 16s) from at eventbrite.co.uk or by emailing events@musicforallmsg.org

Proceeds from this concert, which starts at 7.30pm, will go towards the casework and maintenance of the Willis pipe organ.

saint george

CELEBRATE the patron saint of England at the MK Rose in Campbell.

Although Saint George never visited England during the Middle Ages he became revered by the English and according to legend fought on their side in the Crusades and the Hundred Years War as well as allegedly slaying a dragon.

Is there no reason why we shouldn't join in with songs and poetry?

This free event starts at noon on Saturday.

songman

COLIN Hay brings his quizzical, curious and cynical, yet open-hearted songs with catchy melodic hooks, to MKII in Kiln Farm on Thursday, April 28.

The Scottish-Australian is probably best known for his time with 1980s legends Men at Work – the platinum selling Australian band that topped the charts with anthems like Down Under, Overkill and Who Can It Be?

More recently we have been reminded of Hay's outstanding talent from his many appearances in US comedy series Scrubs.

The gig starts at 7.30pm and tickets, from £16, can be bought at seetickets.com

Stylish town with history

POPULAR with families and young people because of its schools, houses and high street, here is our guide to Newport Pagnell

NEWPORt Pagnell is a great location with easy access to both Central Milton Keynes and the M1 motorway.

The town was first mentioned in the Domesday Book of 1086 as Neuport, which in Old English means New Market Town, but by that time the old Anglo-Saxon town was dominated by the Norman invaders. The name then changed when it was passed into the hands of the Pagnell family.

At one time, Newport Pagnell was one of the largest towns in the county of Buckinghamshire with two hospitals, a railway station on the Wolverton line and six fairs held for the townsfolk throughout the year.

Aston Martin: The showroom which was its official home

Newport Pagnell's Tickford Bridge, over the River Ouzel, was built in 1810 and is now the oldest iron bridge in the world that is still in constant use and the only one in Britain that still carries road traffic.

The town is also known as the home of the prestigious sports car manufacturer Aston Martin. Although it is no longer manufactured here, the listed buildings are now used as show rooms and regularly hold auctions attracting many celebrities from actor Orlando Bloom to baker Paul Hollywood.

As OneMK recently reported, the town is also home to the only remaining vellum manufacturer in the UK, William Cowley, located at Parchment Works.

Established in 1870, it makes vellum from calf skin. Historical documents such as Magna Carta and the Domesday Book were written on vellum and Acts of Parliament are still recorded on it.

■ House prices

The average house price in Newport Pagnell is £247,326, according to Rightmove, which is cheaper than nearby Willen (£280,895), Sherington (£373,786) and Broughton (£280,277).

Last year most property sales in Newport Pagnell involved terraced properties, which sold for, on average, £208,912.

Semi-detached properties sold for an average price of £260,604, while detached properties fetched £348,035. On the current market if you are looking for a property with five or more bedrooms it will cost you around £600,000.

The average family home with three or more bedrooms costs between £245,000 and £400,000 to buy and about £1,000 per calendar month to rent.

Smaller first-time buyer properties are also available and quite popular with a price tag of between £180,000 and £225,000.

■ Parks

As well as a beautiful garden, play park and canal walk behind St Peter and St Paul's Church, Newport Pagnell is also brimming with fields surrounding the River Great Ouse and the River Ouzel.

Popular dog walking and bike riding spots include around Tongwell and Willen lakes, which are connected to Newport Pagnell via redways.

■ Leisure facilities

As well as Middleton Pool and Gym, which runs daily swimming sessions for children, there is also women's only gym Energie Fitness.

The town also has a thriving football club, Newport Pagnell Town

FC has both youth and adult teams that play every week.

The football clubs train on The Pavilion in Willen Road where there is also a popular skate park for teenagers.

One of the town's newest facilities is an indoor golf centre called iPlayGolf, which allows groups and professionals to enjoy practicing their swing on courses across the world.

Newport Pagnell also has a youth club, scouts, brownies and girl guiding groups and a library.

■ Shops

What many people visit Newport Pagnell for is its bustling High Street. With its variety of shops you have all you need on your doorstep.

The High Street has everything you would expect in a market town from a butchers, bakers and greengrocers to cafes, hairdressers, salons, clothes shops, florists, a knitting shop – which runs classes – and a vintage shop.

One odd thing about the High Street is there are two Co-operatives, but this usually means you can always find what you are looking for.

■ Pubs

Newport Pagnell has at least seven pubs to choose from with some on the High Street and others spotted near residential areas.

They are all popular and everything you would expect from a traditional pub, many in some very eye-catching buildings.

As well as some lovely pubs there is also a historic hotel. The Swan Revived is a former 15th

DID YOU KNOW?

- Grange Hill television star Kelly George, who played Ray Haynes, lived and was educated here and it is rumoured Oliver Cromwell, pictured, died in the town in spring 1644.
- The newest James Bond car driven by Daniel Craig – the DB10 – roared into Newport Pagnell's showroom last year to celebrate the new film Spectre.
- Each year auditions are held for the Newport Pagnell Carnival Queen. This tradition is popular with teenagers in the town. Visit onemk.co.uk to see pictures of Carnival Queens over the years.
- Another tradition that is continued in the town and shows great community spirit is the Newport Pagnell Soapbox Derby. Brought back from the 70s, locals are invited to build and race karts down the hill of Silver Street.

century coaching inn with spacious rooms and period features. With its own restaurant for guests it is also popular for visitors wanting afternoon tea.

■ Restaurants

With restaurants serving Indian, Thai, Chinese, and Polish cuisine there is really food to tempt all tastebuds in the town.

Most of the pubs also serve traditional food. There is currently a planning application for a Wetherspoon in the town, which has been welcomed by some for its food and drink offering for families.

■ Schools

One of the reasons Newport Pagnell is popular with families is because of its excellent schools.

Ousedale School is an academy for 11 to 19-year-olds and in June 2015 it was voted the top school in Milton Keynes based on the last three years' results at both GCSE and A-level.

The academy has also received recognition from the Department for Education for consistently achieving outstanding results at GCSE.

The sixth form has an enviable reputation locally and nationally – it has been the top performing sixth form in Milton Keynes for nine years and in the top one per cent in the country for comprehensives.

Newport Pagnell also has primary schools and nurseries, including Portfields Primary School, Cedars Primary School, Green Park and Tickford Primary School. See their latest Ofsted reports at onemk.co.uk

■ Attractions

Many people from outside the town come to visit Newport Pagnell's farmers' market, which is held on the third Friday of every month.

The town's annual street carnival weekend and Christmas light switch-on also attracts many people because of its stalls, displays, fun fair and more.

■ Services

The town has two GP surgeries – Newport Pagnell Medical Centre and The Kingfisher Centre. The Medical Centre has also taken over Willen Surgery, which is set to reopen for patients.

Newport Pagnell also has retirement villages and sheltered housing to accommodate and look after its elderly.

Castlemead Court is a newer 79-bed care home that provides residential, nursing and palliative care for older people, including those with dementia, and is set in beautiful grounds.

Buckinghamshire Fire and Rescue Service also has a station in Newport Pagnell, which is also home to one of its water rescue units.

Thames Valley Police has community officers patrolling the town but they are no longer based there.

Newport Pagnell also has a very proactive town council that takes part in the National Horticultural's Society Britain in Bloom competition.

Flower baskets and tubs are put on display around the High Street to keep it looking nice.

Central Bedfordshire Council

● QUALITY LEAD OFFICER £22,478 to £24,931 per annum

Full time; 37 hours per week

We require a talented team player, able to actively support operational evaluation of all aspects of our service delivery.

A prior background in learning and development will be a key requirement of this role along with a willingness to embrace the challenge of evidencing the impact of our work through a range of activity. Great communication and reporting skills are a must, along with a high level of accuracy.

Responsible for embedding evaluation in all processes, gathering data, interviewing trainers and end users for evidence of impact and providing summary reporting on a regular basis to inform on progress and service quality.

There is a requirement to drive in order to undertake this role.

We have exciting opportunities to lead on the future development of the Pan Bedfordshire LSCB Training Unit, hosted by Central Bedfordshire Council.

● LSCB TRAINING OFFICER £31,208 to £34,050 per annum

Full time; 37 hours per week

Leading a small team, you will be responsible to the local safeguarding children boards of the three authorities to implement the agreed training strategy in support of multi-agency learning needs across Bedfordshire. You will be required to report regularly on activity and attend meetings relevant to your role.

You will plan and commission a programme of learning and manage the support team to deliver on all related activity including administrative functions and evaluation processes in support.

There is a requirement to drive in order to undertake this role.

● LSCB TRAINING ASSISTANT £22,478 to £24,931 per annum

Full time; 37 hours per week

Central Bedfordshire

Ref: 5457

You will provide support to the Training Officer in the development of the service, and will be required to give advice and guidance to those wishing to access multi-agency learning activity.

You will be responsible for quality assurance, manage the performance of externally commissioned trainers and coordinate validation panels to approve single partner agency training packages as required. You will manage the process of evaluation including organisational impact and provide data for reporting purposes.

There is a requirement to drive in order to undertake this role.

For both roles you will probably have a background in training and may be employed in the Children's Workforce undertaking a role that enables you to be conversant with the role of Local Safeguarding Boards and the requirements of practitioners to keep children safe.

● LSCB TRAINING ADMIN ASSISTANT

£17,714 to £19,742 per annum

Full time; 37 hours per week

Ref: 5458

You will work with other team members to provide a high quality customer experience. Your administrative responsibilities within the LSCB joint training unit will include administration of the CPD online, bookings, reporting and supporting the promotion of courses. You will be able to manage telephone calls and email enquiries requiring low level advice on course suitability. Ideally you will have a background in customer support and an awareness of database administration. Your communication and accuracy skills will need to be of a very high standard to enable you to provide the very best level of support for the service.

For an informal discussion about any of these positions, please contact: Debbie Crawford on 0300 300 4879 or email Debbie.crawford@centralbedfordshire.gov.uk

Manshead School

Dunstable Road, Caddington, Beds, LU1 4BB
Number on Roll: 1200 (with 270 in sixth Form)
Headteacher - Jim Parker

We are a 11-19 Secondary School situated on an attractive site just south of Dunstable.
We are currently recruiting for the roles below:

TEACHING ASSISTANT (INCLUSION)

£9,796 - £10,457 p.a. Vacancy ID: 104576
27.5 hours per week, term-time only

We have a vacancy for a teaching assistant in our Inclusion team with immediate effect. The position involves working with students who have a varied spectrum of Special Educational Needs (SEN) and/or Pastoral issues within a classroom setting or small groups. It is desirable, but not essential, for you to have experience of working in a SEN setting, particularly in a mainstream school. It would be useful if candidates are able to speak additional languages, but not essential, in order to work with EAL students.

HEAD OF AUTISM SPECTRUM DISORDER (ADS UNIT)

£22,792 - £24,918 p.a. Vacancy ID: 104577
37 hours per week, term-time, plus 5 days

We are seeking to appoint a Head of our Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) Unit. The ASD Unit has a capacity for 12 students. Under the guidance of the Assistant Head (Behaviour/Inclusion/SENCO) the Head of the ASD Unit will lead a team of TAs with the work of the provision, providing an excellent standard of education for the students and giving them the opportunity to maximise their access to the mainstream curriculum. We are seeking someone with the knowledge, skills and experience of working with students who have ASD and who is familiar with the National Curriculum at Key stage 3 and 4. Ideally we are seeking to appoint someone who is qualified or willing to train in the TEACCH approach.

TEACHER OF GEOGRAPHY

MPR/UPR Vacancy ID: 104578

Public Notices

NOTICE OF PUBLIC LOCAL INQUIRY WILDLIFE AND COUNTRYSIDE ACT 1981 SECTION 53

Notice is hereby given that an Inspector will be appointed by the Secretary of State for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs to determine Milton Keynes Council (Footpath - Carey Way to Footpath 1 near Clifton Bridge, Parish of Olney) Definitive Map Modification Order 2013 and will attend at:

Council Chamber, Civic Offices, Saxon Gate East, Milton Keynes, MK3 9EJ
On Thursday 19 May 2016 at 10.00am

To hold a public local inquiry into the Order.

The effect of the Order, if confirmed without modifications, will be to modify the Part 2 (Buckinghamshire County Council, Milton Keynes Borough Council Area Only) Definitive Map and Statement by adding the footpath described in the Schedule below.

SCHEDULE

(Part I)

Modification of Part 2 (Buckinghamshire County Council, Milton Keynes Borough Council Area Only) Definitive Map.

Description of public footpath to be added.

The route commences at the junction of Carey Way, Olney and Public Footpath 4A, being Point A on the plan (at approximate grid reference SP489186/251812). The route then travels in a generally easterly direction for a distance of approximately 161 metres to Point B (at approximate grid reference SP489335/251842). From Point B the route travels in a generally south-easterly direction for a distance of approximately 131 metres to Point C (at approximate grid reference SP489465/251815). From Point C the route travels in a generally southerly direction for a distance of approximately 105 metres to Point D (at approximate grid reference SP489487/251711).

From Point D the route travels in a generally southerly direction for a distance of approximately 3 metres over a stile and footbridge (at approximate grid reference SP489488/251701). The route then continues in a generally southerly direction for a distance of approximately 180 metres to Point H (at approximate grid reference SP489531/251541). From Point H the route travels in a generally southerly direction for a distance of 243 metres to a footbridge at Point J (at approximate grid reference SP489671/251416).

From Point J the route travels in a generally southerly direction for a distance of 146 metres to a stile and footbridge at Point K (at approximate grid reference SP489701/251273). From Point K the route travels in a generally southerly direction of 287 metres to a stile and footbridge at Point L (at approximate grid reference SP489680/250991). From Point L the route travels in a generally south-westerly direction for a distance of 141 metres to a stile and footbridge at Point M (at approximate grid reference SP489634/250864). From Point M the route travels in a generally south-easterly direction for a distance of 96 metres to Point N (at approximate grid reference SP489667/250773) being the junction for Olney Public Footpath 01, Olney Public Bridleway 02 and the Clifton Pastures bridge.

The route has a width of 1.8 metres throughout. The public footpath shall be known as Footpath No.18 in the Parish of Olney.

Any person wishing to view the statements of case and other documents relating to this Order may do so by appointment at Milton Keynes Council, Civic Offices, 1 Saxon Gate East, Milton Keynes MK9 3HG from 9:00am to 5:00pm, Telephone: 01908 252310.

The New McLaren 675LT Spider

The 675LT Spider was revealed at the end of 2015 as the latest chapter in the history of the iconic 'Longtail' name, and was the fifth new model debuted during a truly defining year for McLaren Automotive. Strictly limited to only 500 examples worldwide which sold out in just two weeks, it is only the second model to wear the LT badge. This latest model arrived less than a year since the first model in nearly 20 years resurrected the name, and was in response to significant customer demand.

The 675LT Coupé focused on light weight, enhanced aerodynamics, increased power and track-focused dynamics, and this limited-run model quickly sold out before the first deliveries commenced. Sharing these key characteristics, McLaren Automotive has added the most focused, fastest and exhilarating open top model to ever wear a McLaren badge, further strengthening the 'LT' brand.

The 675LT Spider, only the second McLaren in nearly two decades to wear the LT – or 'Longtail' – name, stays true to the spirit of its iconic predecessor with aerodynamically optimised, dramatically enhanced styling that results in 40 percent more downforce than the 650S Spider which it sits alongside in the McLaren Super Series.

The main focus for the 675LT Spider is clear: to deliver maximum performance, engagement and excitement. To achieve this, weight has been reduced by 100kg through the increased usage of carbon fibre – the signature material of McLaren – and by lighter components throughout, including newly developed suspension geometry derived from the McLaren P1™, resulting in an increased track of 20mm. Under the skin sits the heavily-revised 3.8-litre twin turbo V8 powertrain from the Coupé sibling, ensuring performance figures are worthy of the LT badge. The power output and torque figures remain unchanged, with 675PS (666bhp) delivered at 7,100rpm and 700Nm (516lb ft) available between 5,000-6,500rpm. The changes to the powertrain saw more than 50 percent of the components replaced to ensure optimised levels of power, torque and drivability. These include new, more efficient turbos, detail design changes to the cylinder heads and exhaust manifolds, new camshaft and lightweight connecting rods, and a faster-flowing fuel pump and delivery system.

Acceleration from 0-100 km/h (0-62 mph) takes just 2.9 seconds, and 200 km/h (124 mph) is achieved in 8.1 seconds – giving away only 0.2 seconds to the more aerodynamically optimised and lighter Coupé. Controlled torque delivery in first gear manages torque to 600Nm (443lb ft) to ensure maximum acceleration, and minimising wheel slip. Top speed is 326 km/h (203 mph). Despite these blistering performance figures, the 675LT Spider returns 24.2mpg on the EU combined cycle, while CO₂ emissions remain at 275g/km – the same as the Coupé. A three-piece retractable folding hardtop can be opened at speeds up to 40 km/h (25 mph) to allow for a new level of open-air exhilaration.

Staying true to the 'Longtail' ethos, established by the McLaren F1 in the late 1990s, the 675LT Spider has been developed with a focus on light weight and optimised aerodynamic performance. The special nature of the model is supported by the extensive use of carbon fibre for the bodywork. As with the 675LT Coupé, the front bumper, with larger splitter and end plates, front under body, side skirts, side intakes, lower side intakes, rear bodyside lower, rear fenders, rear deck, rear bumper, diffuser and 'Longtail' Airbrake are all carbon fibre. Lightweight components are also found throughout the powertrain and chassis, all contributing to a dry weight of just 1,270kg.

This weight is a full 100kg lighter than the already lightweight 650S Spider, and gives a power-to-weight figure of 532PS per tonne. Due to the inherent strength of the carbon fibre MonoCell chassis, no further strengthening – and associated weight increase – has been added through the removal of the roof, and the 675LT Spider is only 40kg heavier than the Coupé, all due to the retractable roof system.

The dramatic styling and purposeful stance of the 675LT is retained with the Spider variant, with the extended front splitter flanked by front wing end plates, each working the airflow harder and increasing downforce. Sculpted carbon fibre door sills run along the lower edge of the bodywork, flowing in to a smaller air intake ahead of the rear wheels.

The new 675LT Spider uses carbon fibre extensively for body panels, which are lighter than aluminium or composites and much stronger. Designed for lightweight and aerodynamic optimisation, the 675LT Spider features the following new panels over other Super Series models, all produced in carbon fibre saving a combined 35kg over an aluminium or composite equivalent:

Only 500 examples of the 675LT Spider will be built, alongside the 675LT Coupé, and all are sold. These are the most exclusive models in the Super Series, and will be produced in the McLaren Production Centre, alongside the McLaren Technology Centre, near Woking, England.

Toyota Avensis

FORWARD THINKING

The Toyota Avensis gets another facelift, but this time the effects go deeper than superficial styling updates. The engines have been updated, the suspension and steering improved and there's a redesign for the interior. It cements the Avensis' position as one of the classiest cars in its sector.

As you probably guessed, the engine changes haven't focused on making the Avensis more dynamic or exciting to drive, instead concentrating on improving efficiency. The engine range comprises 1.6 and 2.0-litre diesels with 110PS and 141PS respectively and the petrol options range from 1.6 to 2.0-litres, with power outputs between 130PS and 150PS. The old 2.0-litre D4-D that was the mainstay of the range is now Euro6 compliant and the 1.6-litre D4-D now takes up the heavy hauling. This Euro 6-compliant engine, working with a six-speed manual transmission, is 20kg lighter than its predecessor. It develops 110bhp at 4,000rpm and 270Nm of torque from 1,750 to 2,250rpm. This gives 0-62mph acceleration in 11.4 seconds and a top speed of 112mph.

The suspension basics remain much the same, with a MacPherson strut up front and slick double wishbones at the back, but both elements have been tweaked to improve ride and handling. Steering feel and responsiveness have been improved by the use of a new intermediate shaft, a revised anti-roll bar and an increase in body shell rigidity through the use of a powerful urethane to bond the windscreen. Toyota has also put more sound insulation into the Avensis, as well as fitting thicker rubber seals. The air conditioning has even been made quieter.

FACTS AT A GLANCE

INSURANCE GROUP: 18-21
CO2 EMISSIONS: 108-143g/km
PERFORMANCE: [2.0 D4-D] 0-62mph 9.5s
Top Speed 124mph

The cabin has been treated to some brightening up, with uprated trim finishes and colour schemes. Toyota hasn't done things by halves here, with a redesigned instrument binnacle, the tacho and speedo being separated by a 4.2-inch colour TFT screen on some models. The steering wheel, gear lever and switchgear have also been updated. Better consistency of typefaces and lighting are complemented by satin chrome highlights. Higher-grade seating fabrics also feature, with a revised front seat design that offers improved comfort. Build quality is a testament to the workers at the Burnaston plant near Derby, this facility routinely achieving some of the best ratings of any Toyota assembly facility. Remember, there's also a Touring Sports estate version on offer if you need a bit more hauling space.

We'll cut straight to the chase here: the Avensis is well worth a fresh look. By improving efficiency and incorporating some seriously impressive technology on board, Toyota has forced it back into class contention. When you have a car efficient enough to be able to put tax benefit-in-kind cash back in your pay packet. And one clever enough to enable you to email, tweet and text on the move, you have one that's going to endear itself to plenty of people, especially as it's British-built.

Could it be more exciting, both to look at and to drive? Well probably, but you can see why Toyota weren't keen to go too far and upset the legions of customers attracted by the sensible charms of previous Avensis models. The brand knows that the medium range market is closely fought and highly populated, with buying decisions often coming down to the smallest detail. And worryingly for some of its rivals, this car seems to have got many of the details that really matter just about right.

New Citroen Dispatch

The New Citroen Dispatch is set to become the ideal partner for UK professionals, with enhanced practicality, comfort and safety stemming from new design features, architecture and technologies. The global public reveal of the New Citroen Dispatch will take place at 9.15am on the Citroën stand (Stand No. D40/Hall 5) at the CV Show in Birmingham on Tuesday 26 April. Citroën is to launch a new generation of the ever popular Dispatch LCV, featuring new technologies, design features and architecture, as well as functions that are new to the segment. The New Citroen Dispatch is the first vehicle of its type to offer hands-free sliding side doors and a head-up display, as well as numerous other technologies that make working lives easier and safer.

THE NEW TIGUAN WINS "DESIGN TROPHY 2016"

The new Tiguan wins "Design Trophy 2016". Every year the German special interest magazine Auto Zeitung presents this award to honour the most successful new automobile developments. The new Tiguan prevailed against 14 competitors in the "SUV" category. In September 2015, the second generation of the Tiguan celebrated its world premiere at the International Motor Show (IAA) in Frankfurt. It impresses with its completely new and elegant design that radiates power and authority. Compared with its predecessor, the new Tiguan has a longer (+6 cm), broader (+3 cm) and lower (-3 cm) appearance. Not least among the factors responsible for the implementation of these new dimensions is the use of the Modular Transverse Matrix (MQB). The result is an unmistakable SUV profile with distinctive proportions and a very dynamic design.

FIAT 500X 1.6 MULTIJET 120HP POP STAR FOR BUSINESS USERS

FIAT UK has launched a competitive new contract hire promotion aimed specifically at business users. There are extremely attractive offers available across the FIAT range but a highlight will undoubtedly be the FIAT 500X 1.6 MultiJet II 120hp Pop Star which is available from just £155 per month (excluding VAT) with a low £954 initial rental (ex VAT) and a sensible 10,000 mile annual mileage allowance over the course of the 36 month contract. With excellent fuel economy of 68.9MPG (official combined cycle), CO2 emissions of just 109g/km and inexpensive regular maintenance, the superbly-equipped FIAT 500X's low running costs will keep the accounts department happy. Monthly rentals for business users wishing to drive a FIAT 500X start at just £133 over three years for the FIAT 500X Pop 1.6 E-Torq 110hp with a £798 initial rental.

Audi A8 L Extended Measures Up To Customer Demand

Audi has gone to even greater lengths to deliver all of the familiar trappings associated with its flagship A8 L model in an entirely unique format of considerable proportions. At the special request of a European customer, the premium brand has created the Audi A8 L extended, a built-to-order model measuring 6.36 metres (20.9 ft) in length and with a wheelbase of 4.22 metres (13.8 ft). The A8 L extended affords exquisite comfort for passengers occupying all of its six seats. Audi has further requests for the custom product already.

Swiftly Overtaking Five Million

Suzuki is pleased to announce that global sales of Swift have now passed the five million mark, just eighteen months after the celebration of four million units. First launched in the UK in May 2005, more than 118,000 Swifts have been sold and it is the most popular model in the range, accounting for 36 per cent of the UK sales mix. Swift is a world strategic model that was first built in Japan in 2004 with production bases expanding the year after to Hungary, India and China. Production then commenced in Malaysia (2007), Pakistan (2009), Thailand (2012) and Vietnam in 2014. All European Swifts are made at Suzuki's established Magyar plant in Hungary. Across the globe, 11 per cent of Swift sales are in Japan, around 50 per cent in India and 19 per cent across Europe. Swift is on sale in 140 countries and has won more than 70 awards.

The All-New Peugeot Expert

The all-new PEUGEOT Expert offers customers a compelling and competitive product range with exceptional capabilities and efficiencies, an attractive character with the latest Brand identity and a robust and modern design. Built on a brand-new vehicle platform, it benefits from all the advantages of the Efficient Modular Platform 2 (EMP2): exhibiting compactness, weight reduction, versatility and combines the most efficient engine options - achieving as little as 133g/km of CO₂, as well as highest build quality. It introduces innovative features to the segment such as hands-free sliding side doors, the modularity of the cab with 'Moduwork', Active Safety Brake system, rear-view camera with VisioPark and connected 3D navigation. The new PEUGEOT Expert can carry a maximum load of 1400kg and is available in three body lengths, from the new 'Compact' version at just 4.60m up to 5.30m.

CLUB OF THE WEEK

RUGBY UNION

CLUB OF THE WEEK

Milton Keynes Sub-Aqua Club
What activities are carried out there?

We are a scuba diving club, who dive in the Blue Lagoon every Sunday as well as Wednesday evenings in summer. We train divers at all levels, so even if you're a complete beginner with no experience in scuba diving, we can help!

What is the most common mistake a newbie like me might make?

Buying equipment before discussing with more experienced members who are there to offer advice on equipment that is suitable to the individual.

How much does it cost to join?

To join the club it is £110 a year or £10 a month.

What do I do next?

Come along to the clubhouse on a Tuesday night around 8pm, visit us at www.MKSAC.co.uk or find us on Facebook

On the ball: Mark Lancaster MP, pictured top centre in the bright blue jacket, and some of the rugby sessions

MP given a taste of what rugby has to offer by Oakgrove School

MARK Lancaster MP has applauded an initiative by the Rugby Football Union (RFU), which aims to get more schoolchildren involved in sport.

He met staff and students out on the pitch during a wet and muddy rugby session at Oakgrove School in MK. Oakgrove is one of 400 secondary schools taking part in the RFU's CBRE All Schools programme.

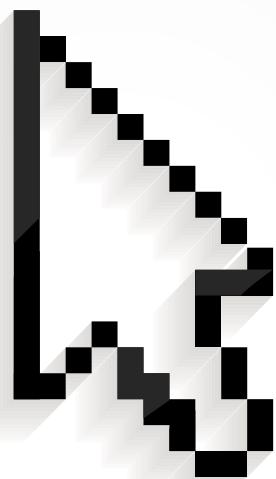

The member for Milton Keynes North saw first-hand how the students have engaged with the sport and heard of the benefits that the RFU project is delivering.

Through the programme, Oakgrove will receive resources and funding over three years, including kit and equipment, as well as hands-on coaching support.

CBRE All Schools was launched in 2012 by the RFU to increase the number of state secondary schools playing rugby union.

After speaking with students and staff, Mr Lancaster said: "I saw a great deal of enthusiasm from the students and an equal amount of commitment from the coaches. The RFU programme is a great initiative – I would certainly encourage more schools to get involved."

RUGBY UNION

Walkover gives MK promotion

BY SCOTT KIRK

scott.kirk@onemk.co.uk

MILTON Keynes RUFC have won promotion back to Southern Counties North.

MK needed just one point from the game to secure promotion so they sent a strong team to the far side of Oxfordshire to get the job done and to ensure that the last match of the season was not a tense affair with everything to play for.

Before the kick off Chipping Norton, who are now likely to be relegated following a points deduction by the league, announced that they were unable to field a front row and so according to league rules, the match was given to MK as an away team walkover and five league points were awarded.

That being said all involved agreed to play the game with uncontested scrums from the start.

In what turned out to be a well contested game City came away with the victory 14-34. First half scores for Dan Rolfe and Ben Fisher, were followed by second half scores from Scott Aspinall, Niall MacKenzie, Rolfe with his second and Frazer Cumming. Brian Purcell got two conversions.

Next weekend sees the final game of the season at Emerson Valley as Milton Keynes take on Crowthorne.

This match is preceded by MK Silver Foxes taking on Bletchley.

The day will also be a big family day to celebrate the end of the season with a bouncy castle and Zorbing.

Milton Keynes were not the only rugby union team celebrating success. Bletchley Ladies bounced back from last week's loss in the cup semi-final with a show of running rugby that secured a bonus point victory and the Women's NC Midlands One title. They thrashed Five Ways old Edwardians 80-5 to secure the league title and promotion.

In Southern Counties North Bletchley's men beat Reading Abbey 22-14.

In Midlands Two East (South), Olney welcomed Lutterworth for the final match of the season – a daunting prospect with the visitors sitting second place in the league.

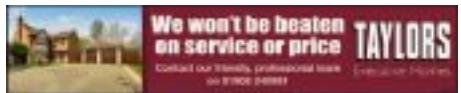

Lutterworth scored an early try, penalty and then converted try to go 15-0 up in the first half and it was with half an hour gone when Olney got their first points as Jake Deighton scored on the wing to make it 15-5.

Olney were encouraged and a good counter attack, initiated by Olney full back Will Durden and carried on by skipper Jack Sutton, took play deep into the visitor's half. Olney were awarded a penalty from Lutterworth's attempt to claim the ball and James Hawken converted to close the gap to 15-8, going into added time. Lutterworth claimed the next two scores to lead 29-8 at half time.

In the second half Lutterworth scored a converted try before Keegan Anderson went over for a converted try to reduce the arrears to 36-15.

Olney's efforts were hampered when flanker Charlie Harris was yellow carded, the absence of this vital young player proved too much.

Lutterworth went on the rampage with five tries, which made the full time score 63-15 to Lutterworth.

Kvyat claims podium place as Ricciardo gets puncture

BY SCOTT KIRK

scott.kirk@onemk.co.uk

RED Bull Racing's Daniil Kvyat charged up the field to finish on the podium in third at the Chinese Grand Prix in Shanghai.

It prompted Ferrari driver Sebastian Vettel to call him a 'madman' after he bravely fought the former Red Bull driver right at the start of the race, with the Russian having started from sixth on the grid.

It gives Kvyat some great momentum heading into his home Grand Prix at Russia on Sunday, May 1.

"I really enjoyed the race," said Kvyat.

"Our pace was very strong and to get this result at this track where we didn't expect to be so strong is really great.

"The car is performing really well, the chassis is easy to drive and with further upgrades coming to the power unit, we should be in an even stronger position."

Vettel was furious with Kvyat for the move he made on him to get past him because it meant that he collided with Kimi Raikkonen, but Kvyat defended what he did.

"I think it was a fair move on Vettel. I saw the gap and I went for it. We didn't touch, unfortunately for him, Kimi was on his other side."

"For me it was a logical move and it paid off with a podium."

"It's a nice boost for our side of the garage after a couple of tricky races. It's also good for the team to be consistently fighting for podiums this year. It's very encouraging for the season."

Celebrations: Red Bull Racing's Daniil Kvyat celebrates his third place podium finish at the Chinese Grand Prix in Shanghai

"I'm a very happy man today and it's nice to carry this feeling heading into my home Grand Prix in Russia."

Daniel Ricciardo started the race from second and at the start managed to leapfrog Nico Rosberg into the lead.

But a puncture on his car early on caused him a setback and in the end he had to settle for fourth.

Ricciardo said: "It didn't seem like there was one big bit which I caught so it was unexpected when I was coming through Turn 11 and 12 and was feeling the rear start to slide so I just came on the radio straight away to let them know the tyres were gone.

"The puncture became noticeable when I got on the straight as I could feel the car start to wobble and then my tyre went.

"The second part of the race I drove probably one of the best races of my life."

Team principal Christian Horner added: "It's been a great day for the team. For Daniel to take the lead and then get that puncture was desperately unlucky after he hit some debris.

"Dany took up the baton and drove a fantastic race."

Chris and Gabby end Asian tour

CHRIS and Gabby Adcock's lengthy Asian tour ended at the quarter-final stages of the mixed doubles at the Singapore Open on Friday night.

The sixth seeds, who live and train in Milton Keynes, lost to Indonesia's top seeds Tontowi Ahmad and Liliyana Natsir 21-15, 21-15 in 36 minutes.

The number one English pairing had looked in solid form after taking out Chinese Taipei and Korean opposition in straight games as they matched their run from last week's Malaysian Open.

The husband and wife duo spoke to reporters during the tournament as they looked ahead to an intriguing Olympic campaign, with the mixed doubles seemingly wide open. "We want a medal, same as everybody else. In the mixed doubles, it's very open right now, lots of winners over the last four or five Superseries tournaments," Chris, 26, told AFP.

Defeated: Chris and Gabby Adcock will now focus on the European Championships

Gabby added: "We've already proven that we're one of the world's best by winning Superseries events and being [in] the top eight in the world for three years straight. It's amazing that we can get medals for Britain in mixed doubles, but I've got my own motivation goals and I just want a medal myself.

"It's very exciting times and we're still so young."

"We've got a long, long time left in the game."

The Adcocks will now travel back and focus on the upcoming European Championships in France.

Meanwhile, Heather Olver and Lauren Smith's global pursuit of Rio 2016 Olympic qualification points ended in an agonising defeat at the Peru International on Sunday.

In a battle of the top seeds, the English number one women's doubles pair lost 21-18, 19-21, 21-19 in 65 minutes to the top-seeded Johanna Goliszewski and Carla Nelte of Germany.

There was only one place in the world rankings between the opponents, although the English duo had won the last three matches.

At the Croatian International, Sam Parsons reached the semi-finals of the men's singles.

Parsons could not get past Italian qualifier Wisnu Haryo Putro in the semi-final despite a solid start, losing 13-21, 21-13, 21-14.

NON-LEAGUE FOOTBALL

UNITED Counties Premier Division outfit Newport Pagnell Town fell eight points behind leaders Leicester Nirvana and AFC Kempston Rovers after their rivals drew and won respectively. Town were due to travel to Rovers last night and are away to Holbeach Town on Saturday.

In the Spartan South Midlands League Division One, New Bradwell St Peter beat Baldock Town 2-1. In Division Two, Stony Stratford Town beat Mursley United 3-0, while Old Bradwell United lost 7-2 at Pitstone and Ivinghoe.

LONG JUMP

GREG Rutherford broke the meet and stadium record at Long Beach when he jumped 8.30m at the Beach Invitational. It was his first jump of the outdoor season.

ATHLETICS

MARSHALL Milton Keynes Athletics Club's (MMKAC) senior track and field team opened their Southern League Division One campaign in a home match at Stantonbury Stadium. Chelmsford took the honours with MMKAC runners-up.

The MMKAC ladies, whose team comprised at least half U20s, started with an excellent double in the hammer, Kayleigh Presswell again throwing more than 50m with a best of 52.76m and then Emma Beardmore was just 12cm off her personal best with 47.74 to win the B string. Emma went to record a further three victories in the throwing events.

The men's lateral jumps produced maximum points, Chuko Cribb and Jamil Hassan winning the long jump events with 6.33m and 6.03m respectively. In the triple jump, Cribb won by more than 2m. In the throws Lewis Barnes threw 32.04m to win the hammer and Jonathan Pownall 52.40m for a javelin victory.

On the roads Martin Erasmus just failed to break the three-hour barrier in the Brighton Marathon finishing 118th. Chris Dunn led home eight MK runners in the annual Flitwick 10km. He was 63rd with a time of 41.15.

Dons cling on as Owls can't score

BY SCOTT KIRK

scott.kirk@onemk.co.uk

SHEFFIELD Wednesday hit the woodwork FOUR times as Dons held on to their Championship status at Hillsborough last night.

Dons needed a point to stay in the league and that's exactly what they got in an ill-tempered draw.

Daniel Pudil hit the woodwork just before half time with what looked like a cross.

The second half was all Wednesday as Atdhe Nuhiu hit the post with a header, before Pudil struck the bar with another effort. Barry Bannan hit the bar in injury time.

The game was not without incident though as Ross Wallace was sent off for an off-the-ball incident on Jonny Williams, which caused much controversy among the home fans.

The point in Yorkshire backed up a 1-1 draw for Dons at Preston North End on Saturday, when Alex Revell was the unlikely hero by saving a penalty.
